Arrives in Knoxville, 2:45 P. M.
Distance 130 miles; Fare 5 cents per mile.
25 minutes allowed for meals in Bristol.
Time being 30 minutes slower than Va. time, the apparent wait of connection between the above schedules is explained.

Returned.—The junior editor of the News has returned, much improved in health, and assures his friends that his trip has been pleasant and profitable.

The Horse Race.—A race was run yesterday at Millard's Mill, in the vicinity of Bristol, between the white mare Lucy, entered by R. W. Hughes, of Washington county, Va., and the brown horse Billy McCool, entered by — Cain, of Knoxville, Wagon $200.

Killed.—A son of Jacob Keister, of Blacksburg, Va., was crushed to death in a case mill a few days since.

Rev. Dr. Moore, the distinguished minister of the 1st Presbyterian church, of Richmond, Va., has accepted a call to Nashville, Tenn.

Va. & Tenn. Railroad Election.— The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Va. & Tenn. Railroad Company will be held in Lynchburg on Tuesday next, the 17th. The election of officers for the ensuing year will probably be hotly contested, but Mahone will win.

Personal.—We are pleased to state that Judge H. Burns, formerly of Kentucky, has purchased property at Esti-ville, Va., with a view of settling permanently in Southwest Virginia.
The Judge, as a lawyer, stands at the head of the profession.

Terrible Accident.—Martin L. Roller, Esq., of Sullivan county, met with what is thought will result in a fatal accident on Saturday last while feeding a threshing machine. The machine burst, mangled him in a terrible manner. —Greenville Union.

Health of Col. John R. Branner.— We are pleased to announce that Col.
Branner is convalescent, and now hope for his recovery. Mr. Dickinson, of Knoxville, has already been appointed President pro tem. of the E. T. & Va.
Railroad.

East Tennessee Railroad Election.— We understand Mr. Joseph Jackson, of Salisbury, Va., but a life-long Tennessian, is a candidate for the Presidency of the Tennessee road. A more skillful and energetic officer could not be elected to that office; a more elegant and courteous gentleman could not be proposed; a more successful and practical business man cannot be found; and we feel sure the interests of the road and the Air Line would prosper in his keeping. Mr. Peres Dickinson, the present Pro tempore incumbent, we understand, does not wish the office.
Election 20th instant.

Full of a Clergyman.—We regret to state that the fine saddle horse presented to Rev. E. H. Ingle, by his parishioners at Big Lick, fell with him, seriously spraining his ankle and tearing his coat very badly. Not to be thus outdone, the friends of this gentleman met again, and asked him to indicate to the extent of $25 the character of investment which would be most acceptable and useful to him, inasmuch as the coat had already been replaced.
Having nursed the ankle well, they are determined to make the horse gift a success. Such parishioners will do.

Escaped.—John Epperson, from near Bushong's furnace, charged with bearing on Saturday last, stolen a pair of boots from Wm. D. Jones, was pursued by Mr. Henry Stokes and others. On their getting within sight of him he ran, was fired on twice, but made his escape. He is said to have boasted that he had stolen a great many goods from time to time from Mr. Jones. It is now ascertained that he was comfortably lodged in the top of a cedar, where he witnessed his pursuers abandon the chase.

Episcopal Convocation.—The Convocation of Southwest Virginia closed its session here on Sunday, the 1st inst.
Our notice of its concluding services was crowded out last week. The sermon on "Worldly Conformity," as per appointment, by Rev. F. H. Ingle, was one of merit and calculated to inspire promise. The services of Friday and Saturday were conducted by Rev. Jno.
Wharton, of Liberty, Rev. Jas. Grammer, of Lynchburg, and Rev. L. B.
Wharton, of Abingdon. The service on Sunday was conducted by Gen. Pendleton alone, who preached two sermons of great acceptability.

The Convocation extended very substantial aid to Emanuel Church here, for which the congregation, through the vestry, extend their very sincere thanks to the clergyman composing the body.
The next session of the Convocation will be held in St. Paul's Church, Lynchburg, on the Wednesday after Easter next, which will be the 31st of March, 1887.

Service at Germantown, Va.—Rev.
C. P. Rodier, of Wytheville, Va., and Rev. L. B. Wharton, of Abingdon, by appointment of the Convocation, will hold a series of services at Tazewell Court-house, Va., beginning on the 26th of the present month, which is the Thursday before the first Sunday in Advent.

The Bedford Sentinel comes to us greatly improved in typography. We congratulate Mr. Berry, the editor.

A Sale.—J. S. Shangle Esq., has understand, sold his house and lot to Mr. R. Hamilton for $1,600.

A Negro brought to Court.—Bob, formerly Barney Pitzer's slave of Salem, Va., but now Barney's valet, brought in to Board & Hirsch's smoke-house in that town last week. Fearing arrest he took the cars for Bristol on Friday night last. Arriving in this place on Saturday morning, he moved his free carcass on the Tenn. side of the state line and was easily snatching his bacon near the Nickles House. Mr. E. B. McManahan had been apprised through the telegraph of the state of the case, and called to his assistance Esq. Campbell, of Va., and Esq. Shangle, of Tenn., who together with Mr. Jno. Steffner, succeeded in getting this African jockey out of Virginia soil. Robert succeeded in getting Mr. Steffner's pistol from him and would have done damage therewith but for a few timely blows from Esq. Shangle's willow history stick, which brought blood, subdued cock, and enticed the vagabond to the thanks of Virginians for his ready and well timed action. Suffice it to say Robert was a desperado, but being well ironed was returned to Salem by the evening train. He confessed having committed the robbery, but says he did it at the instance of two white men.

Shield and Boykin, of Norfolk. Mr.
Boykin gives reference satisfactory to any firm, and among his letters we see one to the Senior Editor of this journal, from Col. Wm. Eggleston of New River, White Sulphur Springs. Col.
Eggleston is a gentleman of the highest character as a business man and gentleman, and he says he recommends the house of Shield & Boykin in the very highest manner. We hope our merchants will try this house, on our recommendation.
